Rome 50 Plus Language Learning Holiday

Colosseum, or the endless ruins, ever-fascinating Rome begs to be explored. Be inspired to learn Italian in the Eternal City. Viva Roma!

Program

This specialized Italian language learning holiday program caters to people over 50. Our language and culture program is the ideal mix of language, art, culture and meeting your fellow students, who, like you, want to learn or improve their Italian and experience the many wonders of Rome.

Mornings are reserved for Italian language classes which take place from 9 am to 12:40 pm. In the afternoons you can participate in cultural activities ranging from seminars, visits to local attractions, or cooking lessons. On the weekend you can participate in exciting excursions to nearby sites.

Lessons

The Rome 50 Plus Language Learning Holiday course focuses on using Italian in everyday situations. You'll be learning to speak Italian quickly and will have numerous opportunities to use the language on activities, excursions, and of course, out on your own. A wide variety of up-to-date authentic material is used in class, where the main focus is on speaking and active learning rather than on passive receptivity.

Teachers

The teachers in this Italian language holiday program are native speakers and hold both a university degree and a diploma in the teaching of Italian as a foreign language. The school has several teachers who have been teaching in the school for an average of 10 years.

Location

Once the largest and most important city in the world and the centre of Western civilization, today, Rome is thriving, cosmopolitan and proud—and the third most popular tourist destination in Europe. Whether it's Vatican City, the
