Seville 50 Plus Language Learning Holiday

Location

It has been said that you can't paint Seville because Seville itself is a painting. It's hard to define this gorgeous city of warm light and scents—scents of cloves, lemon and orange groves, olives, frying fish and honeysuckle. Something in the air sharpens the senses—whatever it is seduced the Moors from the deserts of Africa and kept them here for eight centuries. Seville, the capital of Andalusia, is impossible not to love. Considered the most beautiful city in Spain, it possesses a vibrant personality and explosion of colours. The contrast between the modern and the traditional remind you that, while Seville has been enjoying a contemporary building boom for the last 20 years, this is a city with a history dating back to Phoenician times (1000 BC). With cultural activities ranging from flamenco to bullfighting at the famous Maestranza Bullring, and cuisine that is thought by many to be the best in southern Spain, Seville offers something for everyone. With a population just under 700,000, Seville is an easy city to explore. All the major historical and cultural sites, as well as the host school and accommodation, are within walking distance of each other. Some of the most unspoiled beaches of Europe are just an hour away. And Doñana National Park, Europe's most important wetland reserve and a major site for migrating birds, makes for a fascinating and easily accessible day trip.
